

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

MAR 18 1965

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE RECORDS
Agricultural Research Service
Animal Husbandry Research Division

CA-44-56
October 1964

PARTIAL LIST OF PUBLICATIONS CONCERNING PONIES

- Charlton, Roy B. 1952. A lifetime with ponies. Hodder and Stoughton, London. 160 pp. (This book is primarily a history of mountain and moorland ponies, but contains information of sales and shows, hunting, riding and driving; information on starting a pony breeding stud; showing and judging ponies; and a chapter entitled, "The business side of pony breeding.")
- de Beaumont, Marguerite. 1953. The way of a horse. Hurst and Blackett. London. 191 pp. (This book outlines all phases of horse and pony care and breeding.)
- Durand, Sir Edward Percy Marion. 1935. Ponies progress. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. 190 pp. (Part I of this book is concerned with the training and handling of hunting and polo ponies. Part II is devoted to the care, training and handling of children's ponies.)
- Edwards, Lionel. 1951. Getting to know your pony. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. 75 pp. (Profusely illustrated. Abbreviated information on Shetlands, Exmoors, Dartmoors, Arabs, Highlands, Hackneys, Fells, Dales, Connemaras, New Forests, and Welsh ponies.)
- Hurst, Mrs. Victor. 1950. Ponies and riders. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. 256 pp. (This is a complete survey of the care and handling of ponies; the origin of the horse, the various breeds of ponies, the care and training of ponies, hunting and showing.)
- Macdonald, John M. 1937. Highland ponies and some reminiscences of highlandmen. Eneas Mackay, Stirling (Scotland). 205 pp. (This book traces the history of the development of the pony in the British Isles. Contains an index of ponies, studs, and principal breeders.)
- Otto, Margaret and Stuart. 1954. The horse and pony book. William Morrow and Co. New York. 64 pp. (Written primarily for juveniles.)
- Reed, Felicity. 1952. Your pony. Geoffrey Bles, London. 160 pp. (On the care and handling of ponies from birth to old age. Contains chapters on shoeing, veterinary and breeding advice, and schooling. One chapter is devoted to the various native breed of ponies in the British Isles.)

This list is not complete. No discrimination is intended against those publications that are not included.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

19

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

LIBRARY

19

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY